++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry and bright, but wintry showers possible later.

Today:
A dry and bright start for most, with any showers restricted to eastern coasts. Showers developing widely through the day, but these well-scattered with sunny spells. Isolated wintry showers may develop later, possibly giving temporary accumulations in the north. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tonight:
Most showers slowly dying out for eastern areas, but some persisting across East Anglia into the early hours. Clear skies away from showers with a slight frost possible. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Monday:
Dry and bright start with sunny spells. Cloud spreading eastward through the morning with showers developing in the afternoon. Clearer by the evening and overnight with a patchy frost. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Less cold and mainly dry and bright Tuesday but showers possible later. Dry, fine and milder through much of Wednesday and Thursday, but chilly with local frosts overnight.
